Julie was critically injured in a hunting incident, has almost $1,000,000 in medical bills and no insurance. She has overcome a lot, but is back in the hospital with complications. Each day is a battle. She may need additional major surgeries, has serious permanent injuries and will have on-going medical bills for the rest of her life. When Kinky met Julie he said, "The Lord must have kept you around for some purpose." (or something like that) Since then he has been doing anything he can to help her, including this fundraiser. He's truly a generous man.
